

Stone Street - Interview with members of Junior Professional Program

Junior Professional Program is a new program launched by Lithuanian Government which aims to raise the interest of graduates of foreign universities and colleges to seek employment in the public sector in Lithuania.

Participants of the program – Lithuanian citizens who have completed their studies abroad with excellent grades – will be able to work in institutions of their choice for 12 months to apply the know-how they have acquired in practice.